

THE LAST GREAT RACE TO THE THRONE

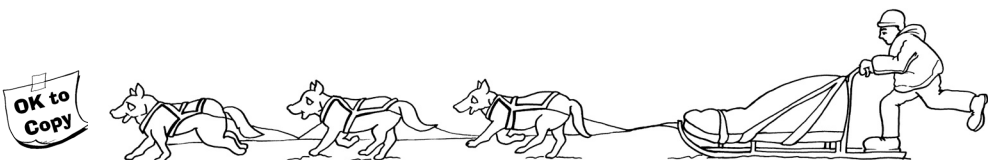

MUSHER

WEEK TWELVE TEAMWORK GETS THE JOB DONE

Many tasks require more than one person to complete them. Think of a job that requires two people; three people; four people; twelve people; fifty people.

WEEK ONE I WILL MAKE ROOM FOR JESUS

To Do List
Checklist for preparing the path.

WEEK TWO

I WILL SAY YES TO GOD

WEEK ELEVEN

USE IT OR LOSE IT!

How would a dropped dog feel?

How would his musher feel?

I would feel like this if Jesus dropped me from His team . . .

WEEK FOUR

JESUS DESERVES MY WORSHIP

Tonight I saw an awesome phenomenon in the sky! Here is what it looked like:

WEEK NINE

PERSISTENT PRAYER PAYS OFF

One time I had to ask over and over again for . . .

This week I will persistently pray for this need . . .

WEEK TEN

GOD PLAYS FAIR

The Iditarod race has rules, guidelines, and only one winner. The I-did-it-God race has lots of winners. Here are some of the rules of that race:

WEEK THREE

JESUS CAME TO SAVE US

HERDIE MEASURES

WEEK EIGHT

I CAN TOUCH JESUS

When I touch Jesus it feels like . . .

WEEK FIVE

GOD'S HOUSE IS HOLY!

Sled dogs must have clean kennels to keep them from getting diseases or injuries. God's house needs to be clean because . . .
